

Where have you been paralyzed in your life?

What negative influences in your life need to be removed?

Brethren, I do not regard myself as having laid hold of it yet; but one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. Philippians 3:13-14

As we just talked about, the power to move forward or stay stuck where you are lies in the words which come out of your mind and mouth. When you continue to drag the past failures, hurts and constraints with you in the present, you will never be able to operate fully in the future. See your future self, free from those constraints, declare in the present that you are whole, able and free to walk in the truth of your identity.

*Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruit.
Proverbs 18:21*

For many of us, we walk through life behind an invisible door that keeps us from experiencing all of the goodness which was intended for us. We navigate life through the small opening in the door which only allows us to see a partial view of what is ahead. We watch in captivity as others find their freedom, grow and mature into that voice of influence we secretly long for. The questions we fail to ask ourselves are, "Where did my door come from?" and, "How can it be opened?"

Both consciously and subconsciously, we build our impenetrable doors with the confessions that come out of our mouths and the thoughts we have about ourselves. If we continue to tell ourselves that we will never be able to..., cannot do..., not good at..., I will always be this way..., I am not as good at that
