

Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another so that you may be healed. The effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much. James 5:16

Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good repute, if there is any excellence and if anything worthy of praise, dwell on these things. Philippians 4:8

God looks at you and sees you as His beloved child. You are His greatest treasure. You belong. You are loved unconditionally. You are unique. You are the beloved. He knows your name. He sees you. You are powerful. You are blessed. You are the beloved. He calls you worthy of love, honor, goodness, mercy, grace and good works. You are beautiful. You have been given abundant favor and blessed beyond measure. You are cherished. You are the beloved. You are wonderfully made. You are whole. You are fully equipped and more than capable of accomplishing great things. You have a great destiny. You are the beloved. You are royalty. You are precious. You are forgiven. You are brilliant. You are the beloved. You are special. You are restored. You have purpose. You are destined for greatness. You are the beloved. You are worthy. You are gifted. You are heard. You are counted. You are the beloved. You are a friend. You are an overcomer. You are valued. You are a favorite. You are chosen. You are His. You are the beloved: be-loved!

I hope that your confessions will soon become, "I am loved. I am cherished. I am worthy. I am gifted. I have purpose. I am capable. I am honorable. I am smart. I am wise. I am joyful. I am patient. I am successful. I am a great speaker. I am excellent at everything I do. Etc."
