SimpleInvoicer is a very useful program that let you create electronic documents, and exchange them between business. This is a complete software solution that includes all functionality, from beginning to end. In addition, you can also generate PDF invoices, orders, bills, etc..
SimpleInvoicer Editions:

SimpleInvoicer is available in two editions, the Free Edition and the Standard Edition. SimpleInvoicer - Free Edition:

SimpleInvoicer - Free Edition is fully functional, and includes all the basic functionalities.

SimpleInvoicer - Standard Edition: The Standard Edition includes most of the extra functions that you can use in your business. Detailed description of SimpleInvoicer: The main user interface is with a wide screen grid with columns and rows where we can put our documents, for example a document called Invoice: We can add attachments, calculate prices, print invoices and other documents, etc.. It has an advanced report generator that lets us extract some information from the document. To get more information about a specific document, we click on the icon that represents the document. We will get the detailed information of the selected document: We can also use SimpleInvoicer with our own database, and if we want to do this, we can export an ODBC connection for example from Excel. With a customer template, we can create a custom invoice: With a Pdf invoice template, we can also create a invoice PDF file. SimpleInvoicer - Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs): Q: Does SimpleInvoicer include all the functions of Microsoft Word? A: Not exactly.

Although SimpleInvoicer and Word are similar, they are not the same. Most of the functions are the same, but some functions are not available. For example, if we want to print an invoice, we have to create a template in SimpleInvoicer, while with Word we can directly create the document and print it.

Q: Does SimpleInvoicer include a legal document editor?

A: Yes, we have a legal document editor. We can find it inside the Legal menu on the left.

From this menu we can create a new legal document or edit an existing one. We will get a new blank legal document with a template, that
