Details on this feature will be announced at E3 2016, but for now we can share that it will be available in all FIFA Ultimate Team modes, as well as Ultimate Team Pro, Ultimate Team VR, Play In Seasons and Team of the Season. FIFA 22 also introduces a brand-new Micro Machines Series, as well as updated mini-games, multi-player modes, teams and pitch surfaces, and the new Special Moves Manager tool. The theme of FIFA 22 is to bring fans closer to the game by providing an immersive and in-depth gameplay experience. This will take place through enhanced training elements, including an exclusive training overview which uses in-game footage from players' personal training sessions and allowed players to follow their progress, as well as a new set of play and control settings. "We introduced FIFA's first motion capture suits in 2013, then an exclusive set of equipment for players in 2015," said Simon Reed, Global Brand Director, EA SPORTS. "We're dedicated to providing more gameplay excitement for our fans and this year's iteration of the suits and the new camera movement technology allow us to do just that." In addition, gamers can choose to play as a virtual versions of real-life players. The virtual player experience is optimized for players with TV consoles. For the first time ever, an entire video game can be played from the pitch side view in the Champions League. FIFA Ultimate Team players can use this perspective to scout the opposition and choose their tactics. This year, FIFA Ultimate Team will also receive new, never-before-seen props for kits. A huge range of customisable items, such as team jerseys and training kits, will be available in FIFA Ultimate Team, including the ability to design special items and unlock them. Multiplayer The competition for the world's greatest club teams will be even more fierce with four new competitive modes. The all-new International Champions Cup returns with updated gameplay. Quickfire Champions League will pit two teams of 12 players in a single game, one from each of the world's top club teams, who will compete in a mini-game to score goals and unlock loot. The final mode is Darts Showdown. New team modes including Darts Showdown will pit up to four teams in a 5v5 competition. The

FIFA is the biggest football management simulation on the planet with over 120 million players worldwide. Create your own club, and develop the people who will lead it through FIFA Ultimate Team™ (FUT™) Mode, or start in-depth career mode, where every decision, movement and drill counts. Train new players with real-world tactics and formations, or use FUT, where every player is up for grabs. Every play, pass or shot is simulated, reacting to the environment in a variety of ways across the game. Key Features Brand New Engine Brings Real Precision FIFA is run on a brand new engine built from the ground up by the team at EA Canada in Vancouver. Innovative AI Smart artificial intelligence now shapes your game through a number of new features, from improved ball control and player fatigue, to a whole raft of new camera angles which can be adjusted via intuitive new menus.

Player Cues The FIFA Player Cues provide you with the intelligence you need to make sure you have the right player on the pitch at the right time. With over 100 unique faces, read the cues of virtually every player in the world, from your own club, or try them all out for yourself.

Play in any Weather New weather effects will help you identify a winning strategy and see which team can exploit the unique conditions, like snow or rain in the UK or Sweden, or the humidity in Brazil.

New Player Classes: Determination, Shot Power, Maneuvering and Agility New player classes now deliver more options to unlock and create the player you need. Use your skill to unlock each class, then tailor your players to a specific playstyle, whether it be a fast paced shot, a tough tackling midfielder or a tiny magician with the ball at his feet.

Three AI Styles You can now choose to play against three different AI styles depending on the players and circumstances around you, or play against a new AI Academy style designed to take advantage of intelligent artificial intelligence.

New AI AI will now use your tactic to find their optimal style of play, with smarter, smarter and smarter AI, getting to grips with better tactics, player placement and passing options. Camera Angle Rebalancing Camera angle rebalancing has been introduced to change the angle of camera feeds. Play on Difficult, Normal, Very Difficult or Post Match Game Modes New by popular demand, you can now select from across eight different game modes to challenge yourself. Try the brand new 3v3 or 4v4 game modes that deliver true football, with

Now for those who are not FIFA fans, the thing that is going to convert them into a fan is the football. It is tough, fast and in-your-face football. Although, the thing that is going to cause them to be turned away from football is that there is no commentator. I can't tell you how hard it is to get the true feeling of a football match if there isn't a commentator to react and comment on every single thing that is going on, it just just sends you into another world. To help you play better, I have managed to find you a video from EA Sports that will show you some of the best

What's new:

- Subtle improvements to the overall presentation of the game will ensure that fans the world over can enjoy the new look of FIFA.
- Visual improvements have been made to the overall look of teams, players, stadiums and kits to ensure that players, and the stadium that they play at, look and feel more realistic.
- The new Dynamic Tactics system will allow you to switch between your coach's philosophy to the one you wish you had been given.
- Captains and Managers are now brought onto the pitch with their teams via pre-match sequences that allow the player to switch out with their captain or manager and take charge of their team on the pitch.
- FIFA 22 will also include some new physical attributes that each player holds. These provide additional details for each player.
- Playing on a wider pitch has allowed more room for goalkeepers to breathe, giving them a much greater range of movement.
- FIFA Ultimate Team is more accessible, including less on screen text and more on screen animations to allow players to anticipate plays, block off passes and read the game better. Players can also expect intelligent matchmaking, with new challenge types added to the mix, delivering more flexibility in terms of match length and game mode support.

FIFA is EA SPORTS' flagship videogame, available on the Xbox 360® video game and entertainment system, PlayStation®3 computer entertainment system, and PC and Mac computer entertainment systems. FIFA has over 80 million registered users and is available in more than 160 countries. FIFA The One Game FIFA has always delivered great gameplay, and its close connection to the real game attracts millions of passionate fans around the world. What sets FIFA apart from other sports videogames is how it blends new social features with a deep gameplay engine, creating a unique, authentic experience. FIFA gameplay has been improved in FIFA 22. We also made a lot of gameplay innovations to make your experience that much more realistic and intuitive, from in-depth ball control and momentum to speed and acceleration. FIFA is always evolving, and so is our game. This year's innovations are just the beginning, as we bring FIFA closer to its current and new-generation fans. Helping to create a true-to-life experience EA SPORTS FIFA 20 is powered by EA Trax, an award-winning, cloud-based simulation technology that delivers the most accurate physics engine in a videogame. EA Trax enables us to better understand the game mechanics from an athlete's perspective. Each time you play FIFA on or off the field, EA Trax collects your gameplay data. We can then analyze the game and tune the player models and their skills to your style of play and help create the most authentic gaming experience. EA Trax EA Trax captures four core game elements that impact each player's game experience. We then use this data to generate your potential, which is represented on the field as a combination of attributes, skills and moves. Then, we allow you to decide where your potential should go. Power*: Power is a critical factor in the world of football. It's one of the main reasons why a player's abilities will directly affect his performance. One can earn more or less power depending on his skill and attribute levels, just like in the real game. We were able to narrow down power parameters to a maximum and a minimum, helping to create a balanced game experience and making it easy to understand the importance of power. Team skill level*: This is the collective skill level of all your players on your team. The team skill level allows you to predict how good your players will be over time. The higher the
